7. Mechanism for determining ordinary course of business and arm's length basis:

Ordinary course of business:

- a. All transactions or activities that are necessary, normal, and incidental to the business of the Company shall be deemed to be in the ordinary course of business. These may also be common practices and customs of commercial transactions.

To decide whether an activity which is carried on by the business is in the 'ordinary course of business', the following factors inter-alia may be considered:

⁸ Inserted pursuant to approval of Board at its meeting held on January 30, 2025

- i. Whether the activity is covered in the objects clause of the Memorandum of Association
- ii. Whether the activity is in furtherance of the business
- iii. Whether the activity is normal or otherwise routine for the particular business (i.e., activities like advertising, staff training, etc.)
- iv. Whether the activity is repetitive/frequent
- v. Whether the income, if any, earned from such activity/transaction is treated as Business income in the company's books of account
- vi. Whether the transactions are common in the particular industry
- vii. Whether there is any historical practice to conduct such activities
- viii. The financial scale of the activity with regard to the operations of the business
- ix. Revenue generated by the activity
- x. Resources committed to the activity

Arm's Length:

- b. The following guidelines may be used for determining the arm's length basis:
 - whether the terms of the transaction are fair and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party.
 - Whether there are any compelling business reasons to enter into the transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any.
 - Whether the transaction would affect the independence of an Independent Director.
 - Whether the transaction poses any consequential potential reputational risk issues.
 - whether the transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or KMP, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the Director/KMP or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Directors', KMPs', or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship.

For determining the arm's length pricing, the Transfer Pricing guidelines issued by the relevant authorities under the provisions of Income-Tax Act 1961 may be used to determine these criteria on a case-to-case basis.

An Independent Chartered Accountant or a firm/LLP of Chartered Accountants shall provide a quarterly certification to the Audit Committee certifying that all the Related Party Transactions are in the ordinary course of business and at arm's length.

8. Omnibus approval

Criteria and the need for granting omnibus approval by the Audit Committee:

- a. The Audit Committee may, in the best interests of the Company and to ensure smooth operations, grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions, proposed to be entered into by the Company and its subsidiaries, which are routine and repetitive in nature and incidental to the general operations of the Company/subsidiaries, subject to such criteria/conditions as it may deem fit, after taking into account the justification for needing an omnibus approval. Such approval shall specify the details as required under the Companies Act, SEBI LODR Regulations or any notifications/circulars/Industry Standards issued thereunder, as amended from time to time.

- b. The Audit Committee may specify any additional conditions for such determination, as it may deem fit.
- c. The Audit Committee may also consider and grant omnibus approval for unforeseen transactions, subject to their value not exceeding Rs. 1 crore per transaction.
- d. Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a maximum period of one year.
- e. The Audit Committee shall review the details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to such omnibus approvals, on a quarterly basis.
- f. The Audit Committee shall also review the status of long-term (more than one year) and recurring Related Party Transactions on an annual basis.

9. Ratifications of Related Party Transactions

The independent directors of the Audit Committee, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;
- (ii) the transaction is not material in terms of the provisions of regulation 23 of the SEBI Listing Regulations;
- (iii) rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification;
- (iv) the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions in terms of the provisions of this regulation;

Provided that failure to seek ratification of the audit committee shall render the transaction voidable at the option of the audit committee and if the transaction is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the director(s) concerned shall indemnify the listed entity against any loss incurred by it.⁹

10. Related Party Transactions not approved under this Policy

- 10.1. In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and
